S. Comments:Inquiry re. tactics adopted as the horse led in todays event which is in contact to the manner in which it has been ridden recently. Mr Hull indicated that as the horse has led over a similar distance during its last preparation he did not feel that there had been a change in tactics. He also added that similar instructions had been issued at the most recent start however CUSHY NUMBER had failed to must sufficient early speed to take up a forward position. Stewards advised Mr Hull that, whilst they noted his explanation, in similar circumstances he should notify stewards of his intentions.

S. Comments:Trainer questioned re tactics - stated that bearing in mind early speed of race his intention was to have the gelding settle in a handy position. Added after beginning on terms with the field it appeared as if the gelding was going to obtain its intended position until HESITATION shifted off the fence leaving 900m, resulting in CUSHY NUMBER settling further back in field than anticipated.

S. Comments:Questioned re performance, rider stated that her mount travelled fairly in the early stages however passing the 1000m dropped the bit and was under pressure from that point, added that her mount failed travel for the remainder of the event and in her opinion failed to handle the track conditions. Trainer stated in his opinion failed to handle track and had reached the end of preparation and would be spelled, undertook to barrier trial prior to next race start and advised that he would restrict the geldings to drier surfaces. A post race vet exam revealed mildly lame in the near fore leg.
