S. Comments: When questioned regarding his riding of the mare, Jockey explained that he had been instructed to take up a position with cover. He said that after beginning particularly well from the outside barrier, when runners to his inside showed superior speed he elected to restrain his mount in an attempt to find cover. He said that the only way this could be achieved was to restrain to the tail of the field, where his mount travelled comfortably throughout, and after obtaining clear running on the rail in the straight the mare ran on well. The explanation was noted.

He added that rounding the home turn he placed his mount under pressure in an attempt to follow the eventual winner, however at this point his mount did not respond, and for this reason he desisted from applying pressure in the early part of the straight. Said that when again placed under pressure approaching the 100 metres his mount then responded and ran to the line strongly.
