S. Comments:When questioned re his ride between the 1000m and the 700m G Ryan explained that he had intended to obtain cover in a forward position in the early stages, however after achieving this the gelding pulled too hard to maintain that position and he was forced to shift around heels passing the 1000m and covered excessive ground whilst still racing fiercely rounding the turn near the 800m. He said that despite this the gelding was still strong in its response until the 100m and said that if it could race more generously in the early stages of its races it would be very competitive in similar class.
