- If the greyhound has not been trained for a total of 76 days in its career, it will be deemed to be eligible for New South Wales if it has been trained in New South Wales for all its race starts.
- A greyhound shall be deemed to be domiciled in New South Wales commencing on the date on which the change of kennel notification form (or equivalent evidence produced) is received by GWIC.

Selection Panel

Each state team will be selected by a panel of experts. For QLD the Panel should be chaired by a representative from Racing Queensland. For NSW the Panel should be chaired by a representative from GRNSW.

All performance aspects of a greyhound are able to be assessed, including group performances, grades, race times, race sectionals, etc. in determining the teams.

Squads for both QLD and NSW will be announced on Friday, May 24, 2024.

The final teams will be selected on Friday, June 7, 2024.
